ADDITIONAL RULES

Objective: The final weeks of the season will allow for the following additional rules in order to allow the T-Ball players to advance their skillset and learn some of the rules that will be allowed at the next level:

- 6B. Replacing rule 6B in the above section. Each hit will result in a single, unless the ball is hit into the outfield grass. If the ball is hit into the outfield grass, then it will be at the discretion of the hitter's 1st base coach to allow the hitter to run for a double. Under no circumstances will the hitter run for a triple.
- 6C. Replacing rule 6C. in the above section. When a baserunner is out, the baserunner will leave the base and return to the dugout. The baserunner's coach can facilitate this, not the other team's defensive coaches on the field.

Note: A complete inning will still consist of eight (8) batters having batted, regardless of the number of outs.
